

GRANT APPLICATION GUIDELINES FOR THE DISCOVERY FOUNDATION

The primary mission of The Discovery Foundation is to fund and promote women's health initiatives.

The Foundation makes grants for projects (preferably in Texas) that bolster the Foundation's mission to nonprofit organizations that are recognized as charitable organizations by the Internal Revenue Service. Grant applications are accepted throughout the year. The review process may take up to six months.

Applicants should submit a proposal containing the following information:

1. Cover Letter. A cover letter identifying the applicant's organization, project description including purpose, goals and objectives, expected outcomes and amount of grant request.
2. Project Description. A concise summary (a maximum of 5 pages) of the proposed project, including expected results and process for evaluation. As applicable and appropriate, this summary should include the following sections:

Significance. Outline how the proposed project will raise awareness and inspire change in the field of women's health. Explain how proposed initiatives will provide creative solutions to serious health concerns.

Investigator(s). Describe the responsibilities and qualifications of individual(s) who will have a principle role in implementing the project.

Innovation. Summarize how the project will challenge and seek to shift current research or clinical practice paradigms by utilizing novel theoretical concepts, approaches or methodologies, instrumentation, or interventions.

Approach. Outline your proposed objectives; describe how your overall strategy, methodology, and analyses will accomplish the specific aims of the project. List any potential problems, alternative strategies, and benchmarks for success.

Resources. Outline project resources and summarize organizational commitment to project's success.

3. Project Budget. A line-item budget for the proposed project showing total project costs (including revenue and expenses), the amount and proposed allocation of funds requested from the Foundation, the amounts and sources of matching, committed and pending funds. Indirect costs are limited to 10% of the total budget.
4. Organizational Profile. A description (1 page) of the organization, its mission and achievements; names and qualifications of key project staff; a current list of the organization's board of directors or trustees with short biography.
5. Supporting Information. The organization's current operating budget (including revenue and expenses) and year-to-date financial statements; a copy of the current tax-exempt ruling from the Internal Revenue Service; the organization's most recently audited financial statements; a complete copy of the organization's most recently filed IRS Form 990, including Schedule A and all supporting schedules.

Two copies of the proposal should be mailed or delivered to:

4514 Cole Avenue, #600 Dallas, TX 75205

All applicants will be notified in writing of any decisions regarding the application taken by the Foundation.
